Where does your trail lead?

Your adventure starts here with Scouts BSA. Picture yourself open tent camping below a million visible stars or backpacking through a towering pine forest. Can you see yourself caving above a stalagmite-filled cavern or on horseback riding through a sandy limestone valley? Have you ever thought of canoeing on a crystal-clear lake or whitewater rafting in a trout-filled river? With Scouts BSA Troop 101 we don't just talk about adventure, we make it happen!

Troop 101 is a Scout-led troop. This means the Scouts decide on the outings that interest them the most. They vote on them and, with the guidance and support of trained adult leaders, plan and lead these events. Scout leaders make sure each Scout takes on different roles. Everything from leadership responsibility to cooperative team building is encouraged and taught. Never tried it before? No problem, you'll be learning new skills while you're having fun. These are skills you can use for a lifetime!

Plus, think on this, when Monday morning rolls around, you get to say, "I hiked and fished this weekend. I explored an amazing cave and learned rock climbing. I tried skiing and snowboarding and it was great."

Ready to start on your next adventure? Scouts BSA Troop 101 knows the trail that will lead you there!

The Scout Law states that a Scout is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent. The leadership team and troop parents' committee strive to instill this code in all of our events.
